

How much water should your residents be drinking?

More than they do now!

Facts About Water

Urinary tract infections, pressure sores, confusion, dizziness, falls, constipation, headaches and certain cancers can all be positively affected through drinking the right amounts of water. Older people need fresh water presented well, and made accessible throughout their day.

